HISTORY OF SILC

- ▶ SILC's were established under Title VII of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The Colorado Statewide Independent Living Council (CSILC) supports the full inclusion of people with disabilities in community life. We further this mission by strengthening independent living centers, advocating for change with elected and appointed officials, and educating the general public about independent living. SILC partners with Colorado's 9 independent living centers (CIL's) to ensure that every person with a disability in our state who wants to live independently has the resources to do so. The following is some of SILC's functions:
  - ❖ promotes systemic reform to remove barriers to independent living
  - ❖ conducts research to inform policymakers and the general public
  - ❖ is a resource for people with disabilities and the communities in which they live
  - ❖ creates the State Plan for Independent Living in collaboration with public and private stakeholders

SILC ORGANIZATION CHART

- ▶ Administration on Community Living (ACL) is the funder. The Colorado Department of Labor and Employment (CDLE) holds the contract for Part B dollars, which includes the SILC and the CILs. CDLE has the Colorado Office of Independent Living Services (the Office) administer the Part B funds, the Office is our fiscal sponsor and the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) is the Designated State Entity (DSE). Both the Office and DVR are jointly listed in our Statewide Plan for Independent Living (SPIL) as our DSE. ACL, however, works with the Office whenever they require information, not DVR. The Executive Director of DVR must sign the SPIL, however, not approving it, but for verification of their collaboration
- ▶ When the SILC became a registered non-profit with the State of Colorado that enabled us to hold a contract with CDLE as a sole source entity, unique among the other Boards and Commissions in Colorado. After the contract is finished and executed, the SILC will have the same relationship with the Office as the CILs
- ▶ ACL allows each state to operate per that state's laws. For Colorado, that means the SILC operates under an Executive Order (EO) from the Governor. Not all SILCs in the United States and their territories require EO's. Our EO's follow the Rehab Act and the Workforce Innovation and Opportunities Act (WIOA).
- ▶ Each SILC, per the Rehab Act and WIOA, are governor appointed through that state's Boards and Commissions.

Centers for Independent Living (CILs)

- ▶ Every state in the USA has a SILC since they are federally mandated. Although these SILCs operate independently of each other, the Colorado SILC is part of this larger network of SILCs. The purpose of each SILC is to determine the direction of the Independent Living (IL) Program for their state by identifying the needs of people with disabilities in partnership with their state's Centers for Independent Living (CIL). In Colorado, Each CIL is a separate private, non-profit, 501C3 operating independently of each other with their own Board of Directors, staff, By-Laws, operating budget and services. All CILs must comply with federal mandates by providing five core services, have a Board and service staff of (at least 51%) people with disabilities, have diversified funding and maintain state and federal certification as a Center for Independent Living. There are nine CILs:
- ▶ Atlantis Community in Denver
- ▶ Center for People with Disabilities in Boulder
- ▶ Northwest Colorado Center for Independence in Steamboat Springs
- ▶ Disabled Resource Services in Fort Collins
- ▶ Connections for Independent Living in Greeley
- ▶ The Independence Center in Colorado Springs
- ▶ Center Toward Self-Reliance in Pueblo
- ▶ Southwest Center for Independence in Durango
- ▶ Center for Independence in Grand Junction
